LOCATION OVERVIEW

As the largest city in Snohomish County, Everett is home to a diverse population of over 110,000 residents. Situated 25 miles north of Seattle, the city lies between Port Gardner Bay and the Snohomish River. North Everett’s charming historic downtown offers a lively arts, culture, and music scene, along with an array of dining options, pubs, breweries, and the Angel of the Winds Arena. Year-round, the city hosts family-friendly festivals and events that attract both locals and visitors.

Everett is known for its commitment to education, with top-tier institutions serving students from preschool through college. Paine Field Airport, which began commercial service in 2019, provides 24 daily flights to destinations along the West Coast and beyond. The Port Gardner waterfront is home to the Naval Station and the Port of Everett, adding to the city’s strategic importance.

In Northwest Everett, Providence Regional Medical Center and a new branch of Seattle Children’s Hospital offer advanced healthcare, including more than 15 pediatric sub-specialties.

In addition to its rich cultural and economic landscape, Everett is a gateway to outdoor adventure. The city is surrounded by natural beauty, offering easy access to the Cascade and Olympic mountain ranges, as well as Puget Sound. Residents and visitors alike enjoy hiking, boating, and exploring the area’s parks and trails, making Everett a haven for outdoor enthusiasts.

The City of Everett operates under a mayor-council form of government, with an elected mayor and seven city council members. Five council members represent individual geographical districts, while two serve at-large, representing the entire city. With 1,200 employees, the city delivers a full range of municipal services, including police, fire, emergency medical services, street maintenance, planning and zoning, libraries, parks and recreation, and general administrative services.

BOEING’S EVERETT FACILITY

Boeing’s Everett facility is the world’s largest manufacturing building by volume, where the iconic 747, 767, 777, and 787 airplanes are produced. The site employs over 30,000 people, making it a critical hub for aerospace innovation and production.

EVERETT MARINA

The Everett Marina is the largest public marina on the West Coast, offering 2,300 slips. The Port of Everett provides a wide range of amenities, including guest moorage, boatyard services, haul-out facilities, restaurants, sailing associations, Jetty Island information, and yacht clubs.

CITY OF EVERETT

Everett is home to a variety of family-friendly attractions, including Boeing’s Future of Flight Factory, the Schack Art Center, Angel of the Winds Arena, High Trek Adventures, and the Imagine Children’s Museum.
